

It Starts In The Heart

IT STARTS IN THE HEART

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

It starts in the heart
Way down in the soul
It starts in the heart
Brick by brick and stone by stone
We all find a way to build a wall
And all we get is more alone
Can you see the stones have got to fall
We can let them stand, but then nobody wins
We can work together and find somewhere to begin

Chorus

It starts in the heart
Way down in the soul
That's the only place the seeds of love can grow
Then you realize that we're not that far apart
We can build a bridge - it starts in the heart
Way down in the soul

It starts in the heart
I look at you, you look at me
Can you see that I am on your side
Though we sometimes disagree
We can find a way to make it by Though the road is long, and isn't always clear
I know there's some way to get there from here
We can get there

Repeat Chorus 2x

It Starts In The Heart

IT STARTS IN THE HEART

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

It starts in the heart With hands in a fist, cross your arms over your chest and tap your heart area two times to the beat of the music

Way down in the soul Uncross your arms and open your hands. Push down your hands down toward the floor in a soft pumping motion two times to the beat of the music

It starts in the heart Repeat as in line 1

Brick by brick and stone by stone With hands in a fist tap one hand on top of the other alternating hands. As you tap, move your hands upward

We all find a way to build a wall Open your hands palm out and pretend to walk your hands up a pretend wall in front of you

And all we get is more alone Continue with mime version of making a wall

Can you see the stones have got to fall Let both hands fall slowly down to your side

We can let them stand but then nobody wins Raise your hands straight above your head. Drop your hands with your pointer finger of each hand moving side to side

We can work together and find somewhere to begin

Chorus

It starts in the heart With hands in a fist, cross your arms over your chest and tap your heart area two times to the beat of the music

Way down in the soul Uncross your arms and open your hands. Push down your hands down toward the floor in a soft pumping motion two times to the beat of the music

That's the only place the seeds of love can grow Turn your hands over, palms up and extend your arms

Then you realize that we are not that far apart With a partner, hold both hands in a high five position. Interlock fingers. Keep hands around shoulder height

We can build a bridge Raise your hands up high as to make a bridge

It starts in the heart Cross your arms over your chest as you did before

Way down in the soul Uncross your arms and open your hands. Push down your hands down toward the floor in a soft pumping motion two times to the beat of the music

It starts in the heart Repeat as in line 1

I look at you and you look at me Turn and face a partner point both hands at each other and then back at yourself

Can you see that I am on your side Stand side to side touching each other though we sometimes disagree

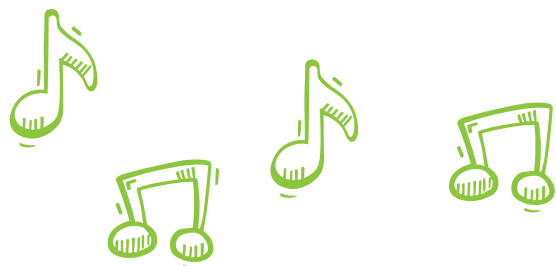

We can find a way to make it by Lock elbows and sing chorus

Though the road is long Hands together in prayer position, fingers aiming forward. Move the hands in a snake motion forward

And isn't always clear Place both hands, palms inward, in front of your face

I know there's some way Touch index fingers to sides of head (as if to use one's brain)

To get there from here Point fingers down to spot where you are standing

Get Ready

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

Chorus

Good morning, Good morning
Let's get ready the brain smart way
Good morning, Good morning

Get ready to start the day
Get your hands ready - shake, shake
Get your arms ready - stretch, stretch
Get your brain ready - cross, cross
Get your focus ready - take deep breath

Repeat Chorus

Good morning, good morning
Let's get ready the brain smart way
Good morning, good morning
Get ready to start the day.

Connect with a friend - shake, shake
Connect with a friend - clap, clap
Connect with a friend - hip, hip
Connect with a friend - hug, hug, hug
Good morning, good morning
Get ready to start the day

Get ready to start the day (2x)

Get Ready

IT STARTS IN THE HEART

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

Chorus

Good Morning, Good Morning

Let's get ready the brain smart way

Good morning, Good morning

Get ready to start the day

Get your hands ready - shake, shake Shake your hands

Get your arms ready - stretch, stretch Reach your arms up high

Get your brain ready - cross, cross Touch your right elbow to your left knee and then left elbow to right knee crossing the midline of the body. If this is too hard for young children have them cross the midline of the body in some fashion

Get your focus ready - breathe, breathe Breathe in deeply through the nose, hold it and exhale slowly

Get your hands ready - shake, shake Repeat as above

Get your arms ready - stretch, stretch

Get your brains ready - cross, cross

Get your focus ready - breathe, breathe

Repeat Chorus

Connect with a friend - shake, shake Turn to your partner and shake their hand

Connect with a friend - clap, clap Clap both hands with a partner

Connect with a friend - hug, hug, hug Give your partner a big hug

Good morning, good morning

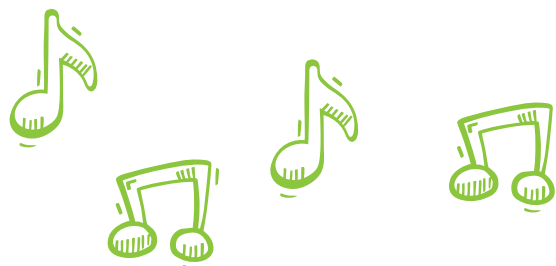

Let's get ready the brain smart way

Extensions

With older children use this as a bridge to a discussion about the brain and how the brain needs oxygen, exercise, food and stimulation to grow and work properly. Teach them that the left side of the brain controls the arm and leg motions on the right side and vice versa. Crossing the center of the body stimulates both sides of the brain to work together. Taking a deep breath allows you to relax and reduces the stress in the body. When the stress is reduced, you can think instead of react to situations that are upsetting.

Discuss with the children ways we can help each other feel welcome in the class. Talk about the importance of greeting one another in the morning and the various ways that can be done.

That Was Helpful

IT STARTS IN THE HEART

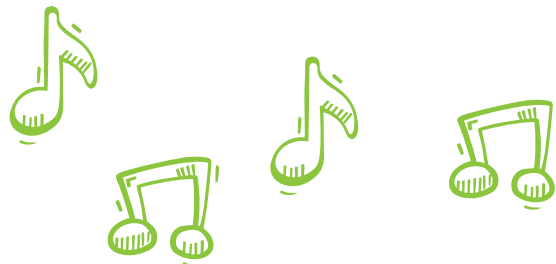

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

Chorus

That was helpful
You helped somebody today
That was helpful
You helped to make a better way

You picked up the toys,
so no one would fall
That was helpful
You used your big voice, so your friends could learn
That was helpful
You held the door open, so we could walk in
That was helpful
You shared a marker,
so your friend could draw
That was helpful

Repeat Chorus

You wiped up the spill, so the table was clean
That was helpful
You moved to the side, so your friends had more space
That was helpful
You worked quietly,
so others could hear
That was helpful
You said "thank you," so your friends knew you cared
That was helpful

Repeat Chorus

You helped to make a better way (2x)
You did it!

That Was Helpful

IT STARTS IN THE HEART

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

That was helpful Pat your legs twice on the beats for the word “that” and clap your hands together twice on the word “was” and then clap your hands together with a friend two times on the word “helpful”

You helped somebody today Take both hands and point to the ground moving your hands up and down

That was helpful Do the clapping pattern

You helped to make a better way Extend both hands with palms up in front of you side by side out from your body and open them as if to give a gift

Chorus

Verse 1:

Act out each verse and do the clapping pattern for - that was helpful

You picked up the toys, so no one would fall - that was helpful

You used your big voice so your friends could learn - that was helpful

You held the door open so we could walk in - that was helpful

You shared a marker so your friend could draw - that was helpful

Verse 2:

Act out each verse and do the clapping pattern for - that was helpful

You wiped the spill so the table was clean - that was helpful

You moved to the side so your friends had more space - that was helpful

You worked quietly so others could hear - that was helpful

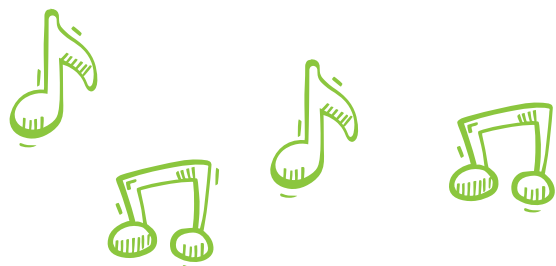

You said “thank you” so your friends knew you cared - that was helpful

Repeat Chorus

Extensions

Have the children list and role-play many ways they can be helpful in the classroom. Make a “Ways to be helpful” book or bulletin board in the classroom. Take pictures of children being helpful and make a picture book. Use the pictures to make up different verses for the song.

My heart to your heart Cross your arms and pat your chest as you sing, my heart to your heart

I wish you well Using both hands open and moving them toward the other person in a patty cake fashion without touching. This we will call non-touching patty cake

My elbow to your elbow Touch elbows together

I wish you well Do a non-touching patty cake

My back to your back Turn around and put backs to backs

I wish you well Then spin back around and do a non-touching patty cake

My eyes to your eyes With both pointer fingers tap under your own eyes then point to the eyes of your partner with the same fingers

I wish you well Finish with a non-touching patty cake

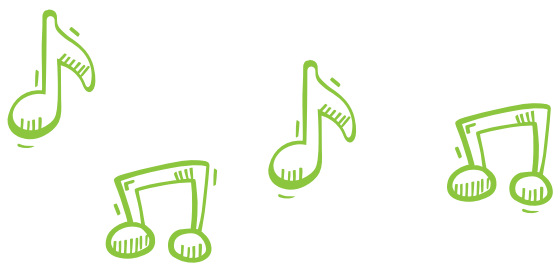

How can we help everyone we know Open both arms in front of you, palms up to include everyone

How can we help each other grow Move both arms up over your head like a seed growing

Sometimes it's hard to know what to do Shrug your shoulders, with hands up as if to say "I don't know."

Wishing them well connects me and you Point to your partner and your partner points to you

My School Family

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

The motions for this song are given in the verses.

However, you may want to explore the following different ways to conduct the song. You could have children gather and after each boom, boom, boom find another partner to interact with or have fun and shake hips on booms! Or, you could have the children create an inside, outside circle. The boom, boom, boom signals for the children it is time to move to the right and interact with a new partner.

Older children will enjoy remembering who their wave partner was, their high five partner, etc., and returning to the same partner each time a verse is adding on in the song.

Caring Friends

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

1st Verse

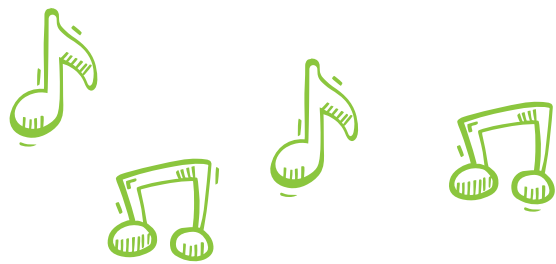

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star
Shine your light near and far
Inside me to guide to the way
Keeping us safe each day
Shake a hand and you will see
Caring friends that we can be

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star
Shine your light near and far
With kind words and helpful deeds
I respect you and you respect me
Hold a hand and you will see
Caring friends that we can be

Repeat 1st Verse

Ending

Shine your light and you will see
Caring friends that we can be

Caring Friends

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star Hold both arms over your head touching thumbs to thumbs wiggling the rest of the fingers as if shining stars

Shine your light near and far Touch pointer fingers together and bring the diamond created by your thumbs and fingers touching closer to your heart and then extend it outward Inside me to guide the way: make a fist with both hands leaving your thumb sticking out. Point one thumb to your chest then the next thumb keeping beat with the song

Keeping us safe each day Wrap your arms around yourself and rock gently side to side

Shake a hand and you will see Shake a friends hands right hand to right hand

Caring friends that we can be Add a left hand shake to the right hand shake so both hands are crossed and shaking your partners hands

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star Repeat as above

Shine your light near and far Repeat as above

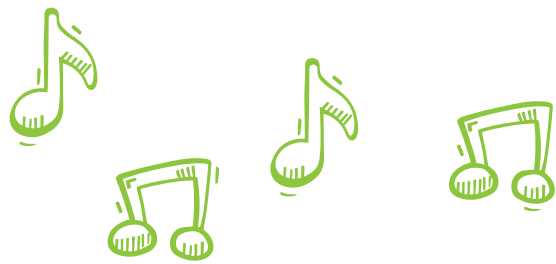

With kind words and helpful deeds Instead of using your hitch hiking thumb to touch your chest, use the thumbs up movement instead. Alternate hands going up and down with the beat of the music

I respect you and you respect me Point to your friend with both fingers and say, "I respect you," and then point to yourself with both hands and say, "you respect me."

Hold a hand and you will see Hold your friends hand in pairs or unite the entire circle

Caring friends that we can be Raise your hands up over your head

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star Repeat as done before

Friendship Chant

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

This is an echo song.

One person says the first line and the remaining children echo back what has been said. You can vary your approach with who is the leader. For the chant friendships 1, 2 etc do the following: Divide the class into thirds. One group will stand and say 1, 2; another group will stand and say 3, 4; and the last group will stand and say 1, 2 - 3, 4. After they shout their lines in a military manner they are to sit down until the next verse.

Extensions

Discuss what it means to be a friend. Have the children role play how a friend would act in various situations. Discuss what it means to make a commitment. Have children commit to keep the classroom safe, or say excuse me when they bump into someone. Use these commitments to add additional verses to the song.

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

Teach your children how to sing the song in sign language.

The sign for words are described below:

All Place both hands in front of your chest, palms facing in, fingers extended with one hand located above the other. Roll the hands around each other

Together Make big forward circles with both hands in a fist touching each other. Move hands together in a circle like stirring a pot of soup

We Move in a semicircle the right hand index finger from the right shoulder to the left shoulder

Live Thumbs extended upward with both hands and index fingers pointed facing each other shaped like an L. Move hand upward from stomach to chest

Peace Hold up two fingers in the traditional peace sign

Sisters Hold your left hand in front of you with the pointer finger extended pointing away from you. Take the right hand and rub your thumb across your right jaw bone and then place that hand next to the other one in the same position so that two pointer fingers are side by side

Brothers Hold your left hand the same as with sisters. Place thumb of your right hand on your forehead with fingers extended, as if to touch the rim of a baseball cap. Bring the right hand to the left hand as with sisters

Sun With right hand over head, fingers and thumb gathered together, open your fingers as you bring the hand close to your head as if the rays of the sun are coming down on you

Working With hands in a fist, tap heel of the right hand with a repeated movement on the wrist of the left hand in front of the body, both palms facing down.

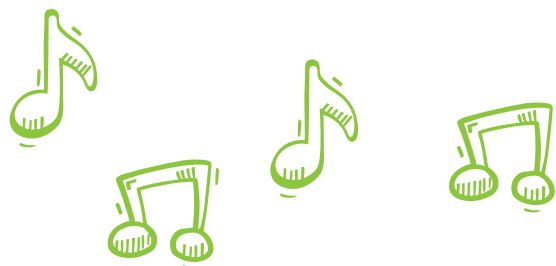

Playing Place hands with pinky finger and thumbs extended and the other three fingers towards your palm and rotate your wrist

Everyday With the palm side of your right fisted hand on your cheek, twist the hand forward with a repeated movement

Love With both hands in a fist, gently cross both hands over your heart

One Hold up one finger in front of you

Look At Me

Lyrics: Dr. Becky Bailey & Jack Hartmann

When you look at me
I hope that you will see
The helpful things I can do
Sometimes are hard to see
So, when you look at me
I hope that you will see
Not just the things I do wrong
But see the best in me
